Rare and Exclusive: Buell RSS 1200 - One of Two in Switzerland

The Buell RSS 1200 is a legendary motorcycle that has captivated enthusiasts around the world with its unique design and exhilarating performance. Switzerland, known for its appreciation of fine engineering, had the privilege of welcoming only two of these remarkable machines into the country. Today, one of these rare Buell RSS 1200 motorcycles is available for sale, presenting a remarkable opportunity for collectors and riders seeking exclusivity.

A Trailblazing Icon

The Buell RSS 1200 has etched its name in the annals of motorcycling history. With its bold styling and advanced engineering, it pushed the boundaries of what was possible in the sportbike segment. Combining Erik Buell's innovative vision with American muscle, the RSS 1200 commanded attention with its aggressive stance and unmistakable presence.

Unmatched Performance

Underneath its sleek fairings, the Buell RSS 1200 housed a potent 1,203 cc air-cooled V-twin engine. This powerplant delivered impressive torque and acceleration, unleashing a thrilling riding experience. The lightweight aluminum frame provided exceptional agility and responsiveness, while the adjustable suspension allowed riders to tailor the bike's handling to their preferences and the roads of Switzerland.

Distinctive Design

The Buell RSS 1200's design was as distinctive as it was functional. From its sculpted bodywork to its unique front perimeter brake rotor, every aspect of the bike was carefully engineered to deliver performance and aerodynamics. The result was a machine that turned heads wherever it went, with a captivating blend of form and function that stood out from the crowd.
